THE IMPERIAL BOATHOUSES

The Imperial Boat House Hotel, Ko Samui, offers a unique blend of delightful illusion and fulfilled reality. Thirty-four authentic teak rice barges, imaginatively converted into one and two-storey luxury boat suites, and 'moored' on land just metres from picturesque Choeng Mon Beach.

Imagine being lulled to sleep by the lapping of waves and the murmur of sea breezes in the luxurious stateroom of a boat...and then awaking to find you're still on terra firma.

Each suite features a sunbathing deck, living room, dining corner, tea & coffee making facilities, fully-fitted sky-lit bathroom and luxuriously appointed bedroom.

The second part of the hotel comprises of eight southern style low-rise buildings, forming three sides of a square around landscaped gardens full of fragrant tropical flowers. All 182 spacious, airy rooms have private balconies overlooking the gardens and sea.

At the bottom of the gardens a unique boatshaped swimming pool sits invitingly beside the beach. Lovers of water sports can enjoy canoeing, snorkeling and windsurfing in the bay. For those who want to explore further afield, trips can be arranged to many of the beautiful off-shore islands.

The Imperial Boat House Hotel is also eminently suitable for incentive groups. It's one of the few hotels on the island large enough to take groups and it offers marvellous locations for theme parties.

HOTEL SAMUI

An unusual and original concept in seaside resort accommodation is the Boat House Hotel Samui at Choeng Mon Beach, Ko Samui, which offers a land-based sea-going experience.

With 36 authentic rice barges converted at great expense into land-locked luxury vessels, a sojourn at the Boat House Hotel Samui will be a dream come true for would-be mariners who love to live in the luxurious stateroom of a boat and be lulled to sleep by the gentle lapping of waves and the cooling murmur of sea breezes...without having to be on the high seas, but on terra firma.

There is also a cluster of three-storey buildings with a total of 180 air-conditioned rooms luxuriously furnished with all the latest in modern amenities such as international direct-dial telephone, refrigerator, mini-bar, radio, colour television and video.

The hotel complex also has a restaurant, a meeting room, and a swimming pool.

Lovers of water sports can also enjoy sailing, fishing, canoeing, or windsurfing in the bay.

In brief, the Boat House Hotel Samui is a slice of paradise for those who love the sea and shun the crowds.

For a luxurious stay in one of the most breathtaking resorts in Asia,
The Imperial Boat House Hotel
is simply incomparable.

Set on fabulous Choeng Mon Beach on the northeast corner of Ko Samui, this unique and innovative resort comprises 34 authentic teak rice barges cleverly converted into two-storey luxury boathouses. Each is "moored" in the gardens and offers superior suite-style accommodation.

Alternative accommodation is available in eight low-rise southern-style hotel buildings. All 165 rooms have their own spacious 30 sqm. private balcony with views of the resort's extensive tropical gardens and the new garden pool

The newly created "Poolside Terrace" rooms offer an even higher level of luxury and comfort, along with a balcony complete with its own private outdoor shower and sunbathing patio with direct access to the garden pool allowing guests to get back to nature - in style!

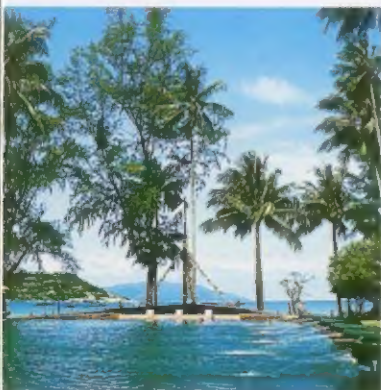

Boat Suite

Spa

Pamper yourself in the unashamed luxury of the fabulous new Imperial Spa. With massages, body wraps and a complete range of other body-care and beauty treatments available, it's the perfect place to revitalise and rejuvenate.

There are two swimming pools - one a Garden Pool with splashing fountains, trickling-waterfalls and the finest tropical decor, the other is a beachside pool uniquely shaped like a boat. Guests can also participate in a range of water sports, including sailing, canoeing, scuba diving and windsurfing in a secluded bay.

The hotel has two main restaurants serving a fine selection of Thai, seafood, Italian and international specialities. The Lobby Bar offers live music entertainment, while the Pool Bar is simply ideal for relaxing drinks amid tropical surroundings.

With its unique style, The Imperial Boat House Hotel is just perfect for incentive groups seeking a fun and fanciful format. Apart from the extensive gardens and beachside area for great outdoor parties, the hotel has three conference rooms for up to 300 people, plus the finest catering services

There's never been a resort quite like
The Imperial Boat House Hotel.
See for yourself.
It's unique - and you'll love it.
